OFFICIAL JOURNAL OF THE CITY. FISHER AMES TYLER, | Political Eds.

J. M. KEATING, R. T. ENGLISH, L. J. DUPEK, News, River, Commercial and City Editors. DEMOCRATIC NOMINEES FOR SUPREME COURT JUDGES.

JOHN BROWN For County Register. ALBERT M. STEPHENS .......For Attorney-General of the Barticti Court of Pausons leaving the city during the sum-artery, the cutaneous nerves, and the ing for wool and getting sheared, the whiter you make the Democratic epigastric region. This dismal edificence indeed with all provident peoples. epigastric region. This dismal edificence indeed with all provident peoples has given place to other vocations compensate for the loss of any one probut if we have now no dissecting uct. Even should Middling cotton sell but if we have now no dissecting ust. Even should stinding cotton sell rooms in Memphis, we can boas for 20c, our planters will find it difficult, of a resurrection room recently now to pay an enhanced price—a war established on South Court street price—for the staff wherewith to sustain where they resuscitate and rejuvenst their families, their hands and their defunct parties, and galvanize stiff took. If such a mishap befalls them it starchy and ossified old politicians into sy teach this class a lesson-perhaps it the flabby limberness of well lubriday-nothing short of it will. But we a half dozen suffering and disconsolate is too late in the season to dwell on it, martyrs resolved to invade the sance of there is no use crying over spilled tity of the graveyard, and dig up the lik. So far everything promises fair to the mourners to attend at John Gaston's, where a resurrection room that been engaged, armed cap-apic with bandannas and pick-axes. At the appointed hour the skeletons were in motion. They gathered around the sacred spot as the sick and maimed used to hobble and crawl near the force around the premises; hovered that circumspection with which burglars inspect a room they intend to plunder; and when they supposed no !! eye was upon them, they darted up the steps like pop-corn from Our valued personal friend, T. S. le chief fugleman. As he rehearsed his currency, our banks are enabled to tale of woe and magnified his hardships, he so harrowed up the souls of The demand for stocks and bonds has his sympathising friends that fulration off, as money can be used to botter variage in other channels, and local tips are not in demand for the same the stones to mutiny. Argiflacious Alston was there, too, swellen with dealers would buy at 71c, with little grief and greenbacks, like a distended ling.

bladder. The naughty and remorsee to-day, while dealers offered to sell less Democracy had just turned Alston out of an office which had made his empty pockets plethoric with long takes mall pieces. Salling at 65 ready cash, gave him lands and cattle loc.

The fluctuations in upon a thousand hills, and enabled hold is not active. The fluctuations in upon a thousand hills, and enabled heart market are not followed very him to ride upon a velocipede, and in seely here, and dealers keep up a good gigs, chariots and phætons, behind pping margin of say 1622; $18 was spanking bays. It was natural that lovernments were firmer and active, he should sit up at night, with his sing as follows: grievances, paint them black, wrap inds of 1881...... them in rags, poultice them with to plasters, stipple them with tears, and bring them, lean and lousy, into the o An unlucky old lady, long ago, con-minc Sixes.... stantly bemoaned the decay of her fortunes, and as constantly referred to it as having been brought about by losses incurred ton has been wickedly and mallelous- an Expre ly deprived of his hash money, in serican Express.

stead of worrying along in genteel stad States Express. ly deprived of his hash money, inshabbiness and obscurity, he intends, York Central it seems, to thrust his grievances un-in the indigo trade. Now that Als-

THE MEMPHIS APPEAL

Is published daily and weekly by the Memphis, Appeal Building, No. 14 Dailor St., Memphis, Appeal Building, No. 14 Dailor St., Memphis, THE DAILY APPEAL

THE DAILY APPEAL

Among the belleving (Theorems).

Appeal audialing, No. 16 pions at Memphys.

THE DATITY APPEAL

Is sent by unit to antheribers, one year, Sur, and the period of political partonings.

It is months, $5 00; the than six months, and the period of t skeleton and frantically smiting and try if possible.

On the score of policy, he has a word to patting the symphysis of the lower jaw with his forefinger exclaimed, "here with his forefinger exclaimed, "here avail against the infernals that have now avail against the infernals that have now avail against the Government. If they hung those lips I so oft have kissed; "the angel Gabriel Shaw blew his horn most listily over the remains and applied his galvanic lungs to the lifetess mass with all the energy which belongs to his apparatus, but not a twinge or jerk could be provoked from the definite. While the dreary and discapposale monumers. While the dreary and discapposale monumers were new and allowed a discapposale monumers were new and allowed a discapposale monumers. Were new and allowed into three quarters—the submisse. Six has Attora, Harburg, Geeste-munde, Leer and Eaden, while the North-German Confederation, and is now regarded as subject to all the formony important commercial seaports. Baltic Ports.—Mencel is defended by a citadel consisting of four bastious, with randines and half-moons, and is defended by a citadel consisting of four bastious, with randines and half-moons, and is defended by a citadel consisting of four bastious, with randines and half-moons, and is defended by a citadel consisting of four bastious, with randines and half-moons, and is defended by a citadel consisting of four bastious, with randines and half-moons, and is defended by a citadel consisting of four bastious. While the dreary with a fingle form the definite. While the dreary were new and the fingle form the definite form the definite form. The city which is situated on the right bank of the Elbe, seventy miles from its mouth, is not fortified. In 1866 there belonged to the port of the same city, which is situated on the right bank of the Elbe, seventy miles from its mouth, is not fortified. In 1866 there belonged to the port of the same city to all the form the same in the field as subject to all the form the same of power Bismarch's prediction and is defended by a citadel consisting of four bastious.

Hamburg 1866 been in the Marburg 1866 been in the North-German Confederation has also one of the State embraces a territory of 16 square miles, with a citadel consisting of four bastious.

Hamburg 1866 been in the Marburg 1866 been in the North-Ge T.A. R. NELSON, JAS. W. DEADERCK, JAS. W. DEADER the wolves and jackalls preying the principles and policy of the address of Senator Thurman and his Congressional associates. In the meantime we shake hands with the distinguished editor of the Mobile Register, and propose to drink with him a cool, fraternal jules to resurrect the Whig party, that the Whigs did not propose longer to be. Whigs did not propose longer to be.

Democratic Conservative banner, and on the principles and policy of the address of Senator Thurman and his Congressional associates. In the meantime we shake hands with the distinguished editor of the Mobile Register, and propose to drink with him a cool, fraternal jules to resurrect the Whig party, that the Mobile Register, and propose to drink with him a cool, fraternal jules to from fourteen to seventeen feet. It is provided with extensive docks, and has a good light-house.

Democratic Conservative banner, and on address and numerous steam packets maintain communication with many of the other Baltic ports. The harbor is large and safe, and has a depth of the German-American mail steamship traffic, is situated on both banks of the Weser, fifty-nine miles southwest of Hamburg. In 1867, six-ism attracted the attention of the an island formed by the Pregel, which before entering the town from the be nr basis, and equitably—we shall de It has white principles, advocated by no fears but that at the close of the X white men. It is unnecessary, boast-center of the curtain (instead of the to the Paris bar in 1817, and in 1818 lingly, to talk of the "white man's plate arther bastion), flanking the planting the planting arty." It is sufficient, step by step, Dantzig is a fortified city and seafact of the pastions with five guns.

Dantzig is a fortified city and seafact of the pastions with five guns. ph party." It is sufficient, step by step, land one thing after another to over- port of West Prussia, acquired by the Marseilles riots, and for this firmness throw corruption and bring about re- dismemberment of Poland. It is con- in the cause of law and order was iscforms, as we may be able by united Facergies and common adelity.

1870-71 the balance of the account changes in local finances present by a-days, except to such as have their upon the street. These find that are stiffining up every day, discounts are harder to , except at such rulnous as prudent men are fearful to

....109 @-

1888, # .....

ing Board, with large sales:

ern Union Telegraph Co.....

tle Mail.....

ed, and had slightly advanced in the

...108 % @— ...107 % @— ....107 % @—

M munication urging the claims of A. water can reach the city; others lie in the Neufahrwasser, at the mouth of the river or in the roads, which afford good anchorage for vessels of any burden. It has a population of the people. We shall support the nominee of a district convention, and do not propose to esponse are the cause of any particular aspirant. The city is of nearly circular form, the opposition, and opposed the public and is a fortress of the first class. At the opposition, and opposed the public public land is a fortress of the first class. bol who are likely to come before a nomi-syl who are likely to come before a nomi-limiting convention, and we therefore finished in 1848 for the defense of this law in '60. In 1861 M. Ollivier was

Lacey. He is an old-line Whig, and with gateway caponiers connecting as evidence of his popularity, we have only to announce that he was the land sides, which have solid earthen the have solid earthen that he should do so. This proportion repeatedly elected to the Missouri repeatedly elected to the Missouri palisades and masoury caponieres. Legislature over a Democratic mayo jority; of three hundred. Mr. Lacey sh is a gentleman of the finest business attainments, honor and virtue, and of laying a considerable part of the would make an able and efficient country under water. Its fortificamember of Congress. For four years tions were commenced as far back as he has fought the good fight for en-83 franchisement, equal State rights, the ants now, but ever hold yourselves in bers about 120,000. A moderate trade readiness to rally to the support of To the Editor of the Banner: Dear Sir-Is Mr. Nicholso

Democrats! bring forward your favor-

H ites, and discuss the merits of aspir-

--- The Ports Liable to be Blockaded. A Ollivier, Prime Minister of France and Von Bismarck, Prime Minister of Prussia.

War of 1815---Wellington and Waterloo---Opinions of the French and English Press.

PROBABLE SCENE OF NAVAL OFERA-TIONS-THE PORTS LIABLE TO BE

Prussia has an extensive coast-lin on the Baltic and North Sea, extending from the Russian frontier to the late Danish province of Schleswig. These ports, as a glance at the map These ports, as a glance at the map will show, are only accessible from the Atlantic by sailing round the Danish peninsula and passing through the Sound or either the Great or Little Belt. A canal has been in total such as a stand can toterate such an attaint on the rational such and the Eibe, a little below Hamburg, was acquired by Prussia from Denmark in the war of 1864. It has extensive railroad objects it is more than toterate such an attaint on the rational control of the Eibe, a little below Hamburg, was acquired by Prussia from Denmark in the war of 1864. It has extensive railroad objects it is more than toterate such an attaint on the rational can toterate such an attaint on the rational such as a standard and toterate such an attaint on the rational such as a standard and toterate such an attaint on the rational such as a standard and th tle Belt. A canal has been in contemplation, by which the voyage be-tween the Atlantic and the Baltic would be much reduced, but the breaking out of hostilities has prevented any progress being made in

The principal German ports in the Baltic are Memel, Pillau, Konigs-berg, Dantzig, Colberg, Swinemunde, Stettin, Wolgast, Stralsund, Kiel, and Flensburg. On the North Sea Prus- latter is fortified. sia has Altona, Harburg, Geeste-munde, Leer and Emden, while the PRESONS leaving the city during the sum more months can have the Dathy Appear, mailed to their address at the rate of twenty five cents per week.

Anthorized Agends of the Appear, will have a properly sealed paper from A. D. Written and the was opposed to a properly sealed paper from A. D. Written and the was opposed to a properly sealed paper from A. D. Written and the was opposed to a properly sealed paper from A. D. Written and in the was no division between old Whitgs and Democrats, as the Democrats had adopted the Whitgs and Democrats, as the Democrate had been obtained by the Perink of the Democrate had accepted the Wings and Democrates, as the Democrate had accepted the Wings and Democrates, and the was no division between old Whitgs and Democrates, as the Democrate had accepted the Wings and Democrates, as the Democrate had accepted the Wings and Democrates, as the Democrate had accepted the Wings and Democrates, as the Democrate had accepted the Wings and Democrates, as the Democrate had accepted the Wings and Democrates, as the Democrate had accepted the Wings and Democrates, as the Democrate had accepted the Wings and Democrates, as the Democrate had accepted the Wings and Democrates, as the Democrate had accepted the Wings and Democrates, as the Democrate had accepted the Wings and Democrates, as the Democrate of the Wings and Democrates, as the Democrate of the Wings and Democrates, as the Democrate had accepted the Wings and Democrates, as the Democrate of the Wings and Democrates, as the Democrate of Wings and Democrates, and Democrate of Wings and Democrates, as the Democrate of Wings and Democrates, and Democrates of Wings and Democrates, as the Democrate of Wings and Democrates, as the Democrate of Wings three parts, the Altstadt or Old Town, perial regime sanctioned by the plesituated on the west; Lohenicht on biscite, is the son of Demosthenes Oi- forward, asked the President for a tions. The general principle kept in view, according to the Prussian engineers in the South, and whites will be vote together. For Tennessee, at least that is well enough, and what is separate commander and garrison, its separate commander and garrison.

Dantzig is a fortified city and seanected by railroads both with Berlin praised by the solid men; it was not and Konigsberg. It is situated on the viewed so favorably by the Reds. left bank of the Vistula, 3] miles from its outlet at Weichselmunde, and at the junction of the Mattlan and Randamne. Vessels drawing 13 feet of the f water can reach the city; others lie again at the bar, where his brilliant

But it is our duty to do justice to all the eastern outlet or mouth of the safety law of '58, the Italian expedi take pleasure in indorsing all that of a circular casemated battery and two short branches of solid rampart, ramparts and parapets, with crenated surrounded by walls and bastions, defended by a citadel and several outworks, and provided with the means 831, and it was held and detended by the French from 1807 to 1814. Colberg is a strongly fortified sea-Constitution and a restored Union. port in Pomerania, twenty-five miles west of Coslin, on the Persante, near its mouth, in the Baltic. It sustained in that division. He became a a siege in 1806. The population num-is transacted at this port. The Odor is not unlikely to be the scene of naval operations and to be ade, Swinemunde, near the mouth of this river, is the port where large vessels bound for Stettin, thirty-six Dear Sir—Is Mr. Nicholson off the track on account of his disabilities not being removed? The tickets for the back counties must be printed and sent them by the first of next week. If Mr. N. is off we wish to put the name of Mr. Ewing on the ticket which we print for five counties.

The tickets for the back is inland, unload. The entrance to the Odor is defended by two sensiblity. M. Ollivier was the individual selected by the Emperor for the very responsible and honorable post. The situation has not been without the name of Mr. Ewing on the ticket which we print for five consists of a circular brick redoubt of eighty feet diameter, in the center of the appointment of a ministry on the new basis of parliamentary rule and ministerial responsibility. M. Ollivier was the individual selected by the Emperor for the very responsible and honorable post. The situation has not been without the name of Mr. Ewing personal influence and printed to the powers granted von Bismarck mentary rule and minister in responsibilities. The angre and ministry on the new basis of parliamentary rule and minister are ponsibility. M. Ollivier was the individual selected by the Emperor for the very responsible and honorable post. The situation has not been without the name of Mr. Ewing personal influence and minister in European and minister in European and minister in the powers granted von Bismarck ministry on the new basis of parliamentary rule and minister in the powers granted von Bismarck ministry on the new basis of parliamentary rule and minister in the powers granted von Bismarck ministry on the new basis of parliamentary rule and minister in the powers granted von Bismarck ministry on the new basis of parliamentary rule and minister in the powers granted von Bismarck ministry on the new basis of parliamentary rule and ministry on the new basis of parliamentary rule and ministry on the new basis of parliamentary rule and ministry on the new basis of parliamentary rule and ministry on the new basis of parliamentary rule and ministe by water as to be approached only by bridges. It is 120 miles from Berlin, and irregular (not vicious) habits, it has been four times besieged. Since carned for himself the derisive appellation of Mad Bismarck, has outlived by water as to be approached Isi5, its defensive works have been greatly enlarged, and it is now one of the strongest towns belonging to Prassia. About 500 vessels enter this port annually.

Kiel, in Holstein, has been acquired from Denmark, and will doubtless be the scene of naval and military operations at once, should that power ally increasing. Since acquiring, Prussian and its reason of 2000 vessels arrive and depart annually, and its commerce is rapidity increasing. Since acquiring, Prussian is owing more than to any other than to any other than to any other than our increasing the whole of Germany against us, and if it be necessary let the deprecatory opinions of his youth-acquirite the deprecatory opinions of his youth-acquirited to be a tester. Herry on Bismarck is married and his wits is said to rivalry with France for the present it rise against france rather than our-hard and it rise against france rather than our-hard and it rise against france rather than our-hard and annually, and its commerce is rapidly increasing. Since acquiring, Prussia has commenced to fortify this fort, and, from the importance of its situation, will tenaciously defend it.

Flensburg has also been recently acquired from Denmark by the war of 1864. It is an ancient town, and was the scene of hostile operations in 1848, when the Germans took possession of it. It trades with the West Indies, and does a moderate shipping business.

Destrict the New York Standard, 1848.

At the Congress of Vienna, in 1814, the Emperor of Russia demanded that the whole of the Grand Duchy of Warsaw should be ceded to Russia as an indemnity for the loss she had sustained and the heavy sacrifices she had made during the war. Prussia the French nation can tolerate such an attaint on the national honor.

Business.

Business.

Business.

of 1864. It has extensive railroad objects it is more than doubtful communication, and has made rapid whether he did not countermine Naprogress in shipping and commerce, poleon's own plans. Certain it is that his position of armed neutrality after alig. It was occupied without resistance in 1864. ance in 1864.

Harburg is on the south bank of the Elbe, and is four and a half miles below Hamburg. It is surrounded by walls and has a citadel.

Leer and Enden are Hanoverian seaports of minor importance; the latter is fortified.

Line in partial blunders in Mexico; while at home the concessions of a painful contrast to the concessions of language in the liberal institutions for Hamburg has since 1866 been in the imperiatism to liberal institutions North German Confederation, and is now regarded as subject to all the for-tunes of war. The State embraces a tions, both personal and ancestral, led right bank of the Elbe, seventy miles from its mouth, is not fortified. In 1866 there belonged to the port of Hamburg 509 vessels, having a total wrung from him as a departure from party, the more Democratic it is; and the 17 more Democratic you make the white party, the whiter it is.

situated on the west; Lonement on order, is the solution of Marsellles, relight, and fairly smoked him into nowned for his eloquence and for his civility. In 1859 he was recalled from tion of the royal power, in the control of the press, and in the in-crease of the standing army. The dispute with Austria sprang out of the increasing preponderance of Prussla n all questions touching the common nterests of Germany. The German interests of Germany. The German principalities were being rapidly me diated into Prussian dependencies. The question of armaments was a new and defensive, between Prussia and the new kingdom of Italy, led to the warlike movements by Austria for pendencies, which led to Napole is appearence on the scene and to and transferring Savoy to France was hardly satisfactory to France was generally believed that, in interviews which Bismarek had at Biarritz with Napoleon about this time, the Prussian favored the Napoleonic claims to Rhine frontier as a set-off to Prussia's ngings for Schleswig-Holstein and er disapproval of Prussin's aggran-izing views on the Duchies; but to these protests Bismarck paid no atten-tion, and the battles of Sadowa and onigsgratz affirmed Prussian rights asolidated the North German States

d brought them all under her con-

Arrangements were also trol, subsidizing their princes and which they retained their nominal in and head of the customs union, and the line of the territorial demarcation completely excluded Austria from all participation in the new band. The Luxemburg affair, it will dependence, but Prussia was made commander-in-chief of the joint army and silenced Austrian remonstrance

The sudden close of the Italian mere party purposes, and on several occasions took the part of the ministry that he should do so. This uncertain action continued until the imperial declaration of liberal intentions and the large concessions of popular free-dom determined him, and he formally joined the imperial party, making his profession of faith and justifying his procedure in a pamphlet enti-tled "The 19th of January." In the following election he was thrown out of his old parliamentary seat by a radical opponent; but having been nominated for another disin that division. He became a personage of the highest importance personage of the highest importance in the chamber, and the pivot around which the parliamentary movements of the old and new parties concentrated. The famous liberal reforms which were to consolidate the personal which were to consolidate the personal ally dismantled and the territory neuand dynastic authority of the Emperor on the basis of enlarged popular rights, led to the appointment of a will give. Prussia will not cede an forcements to resist Napoleon's feigner inch of German soil—we cannot do so left attack than the main body o sentricity asks of as what we neither can no from the yoke of Napoleon, but be-cause she had projects of her own to Jay before the other powers, in which she would require the support of Russia. One clause of the treaty of Ka-lisch had stipulated that Prussia should be "reinstated, at the close of hostilities, in all respects, statistical lnancial and geographical, as it had war of 1806, with such additions as might be deemed practicable." What additions Prussla looked for were soon explained to the Congress. Besides France, Austria and Great Britain, and Prussia was foreign to the great him good night, whispered to ask him principles of justice on which the war if he had a good map in his house, against Napoleon had been main. The Duke of Richmond said he had, tained. Prussia and Russia both des and took him into his dressing-room, clared that they would not give way, and made immediate preparations for war. The energy of the other Europeans powers, however, soon caused bugged me, by G-d; he has gaine them to lower their tone. On the 3d twenty-four hours' march on me of February, 1815, a secret treaty of alliance, offensive and defensive, was do you intend doing." signed between France, England and Austria. The Kings of Hanover, Bavaria and Piedmont were invited to loin the alliance and did so. Its prin- not stop him there; and, if so, I must cipal provision was that the contracting parties should disinterestedly proceed to carry out the stipulations of sition of Waterloo). He then said the treaty of Paris. Both Prussia and adieu, and left the house by another Russia at once abated their claims, way out. He went to his quarters, and Prussia was content with part of slept six hours and breakfasted, and Saxony, consoling herself with the ran at great speed to Quartre-Bras, prominent position given to herself where he met Hardinge, and went and Austria in the new Germanic with him to Blucher, who took him over the position at Ligny. The lanks ing them all the preponderance they could desire.

But all the while Napoleon, in his the Duke of Richmond's dressing-island prison, was not idle. He kept room was repeated to me, two min-such language, and Napoleon at one and by boldly pushing between the rate them from each other, strike to the right and then to the left. He the plains of Champagne; what then might he not hope to do with one hundred thousand veteran troops, with hold his own against. "One Eng-lishman," says Napoleon, "may be ful and ambitious, at once threw to whom I was to have been aid-dethe conspiracy, which was rapidly lington's thumb nail with his pencil forming and spreading through the on the map, and we army. On the 26th of February, Na-poleon escaped from Elba; on the 1st On the morning of the 17th, my of March he landed in the Gulf of St. company being nearly in front of the carriage drove into the court-yard of daybreak the Duke of the Tuileries. The great powers, Eng- came to me, and being personally land, Russia, roussia and Austria, en- known to him, he remained in convertered into a treaty on the 25th of sation for an hour or more, during March, by which they engaged to which time he repeatedly said he was unite their forces against Napoleon, to prevent his troubling the peace of At length a staff officer arrived, his Europe, solemnly binding themselves horse covered with foam, and whisp-not to lay down their arms till they had completed the destruction of Na-least change of countenance gave him with an exhausted treasury, some orders and dismissed him. He arsenels (twelve thousand then turned round to me and said: of cannon alone had been "Old Blucher has had a d-d good Puris), with a regular force under eighteen miles. As he has gone back arms, which did not amout to 10,- we must go, too. I suppose in Eng-000 men, Napoleon set himself land they will say we have been to oppose the whole of Europe, licked. I can't help it; as they He raised thirty battalions of ar-tillery, added forty battalions to the Young Guard, and organized without moving from the spot on two hundred battations of the National which he was standing, and it eer-fuerd. Fortunately Louis XVIII, fainly did not occupy him five had left forty millions of trans in the minutes.

became due; and by dint of working on the national enthusiasm, borrowrepairing old muskets, giving treasury notes for draught horses for the artiflery and baggage wagons, Napoleon THE FTENCH PRESS. of June four hundred thousand men, one-half of whom would be disposable meantime, Caulaincourt approached Emmanuel's position only half assured the other European powers, with a view to open diplomatic intercourse.

"We can have no peace," said Alexander; "he has broken his word. It is a mortal duel between us." Mr. Metternich wrote, "Europe has declared war against Bonaparte. The power and freedom of the Freuch rose and clapped their hands, nation are esential to the equilibrium of Europe. France has but to deliver itself from its oppressors and re-

French cabluct, worthy of the country which listened.

The applicate which broke out on every side during the declaration of M. de Grammont will find its echo in determined to strike a blow. His encodes had determined to crush him, turn in triumph to Paris. Having formed a provisional government, with his brother Joseph at its head, to with his brother Joseph at its head, to expect that these acclamations will suffice to recall M. de Bismarck to a suffice to recall M. de Bismarck to a suffice to recall M. de Bismarck to a suffice to recall M.

just appreciation of what we really Let us go back a little. Prussia accomplished the expedition to Schles-wig-Holstein, and we said nothing. recollected that with only sixteen thousand men he had thus kept two hundred thousand of the troops of Blucher and Sewartzenburg at bay on Prussia made treaties with Wurten-Prussia enthroned a Hohenzolfern in Roumania, and we said nothing. Prus Dutchmen, Prussians, or soldiers of shown that she no longer respectively. the Confederation were required to treaty of Prague, and we and immediately took the command.
On the 12th Napoleon left Paris, arriving at Avesnes on the 13th. Here our hamstrings at a given momen stand of correct direct states are producted in the price of the control of the price of the control of the correct direct states are producted in the correct direct states and the control of the correct direct states are producted in the correct direct states are produced in the correct direct states are producted in the co at a gallop; in the rear the Old Guard moved steadily forward supported by moved steadily forward supported by D'Eolou's Infantry and twenty squadrons of his Cuirassiers, and the Prussians, unable to withstand the dreadful fire of the artiflery and the charge of the Cuirassiers, began to give way, and were soon struggling with their artiflery in the parrow country lanes in retreat, Blueber made one splendid effort, in which his horse was shot under, him but only succeeded in arrest-ing the hot pursuit of the Chirassiera. Wellington, after the battle of Quatro-Bas, retired on the Porest of Longnies, taking up a position on either side in front of the village of Waterloo. Thither Napoleon followed him to pay dearly for the burd earned victory had gained over the Prassians two days before. From Lord Malmesbury's Memoirs, ] WELLINGTON AND WATERLOO. At the Duchess of Bichmond's ball the fulfillment of the "stipulation," she commanded the first division of the claimed various provinces on the left army, came back suddenly, just as the bank of the Rhine, which, by the dis-Duke of Wellington had taken his solution of the French Empire, were at the disposal of the allies, and the whole of Saxony, promising to only said he had no fresh orders to provinces of Poland. This proposal met with a strong protest from The Duke of Wellington remained hearly twenty minutes after this, and especially from Lord Castlereagh, on behalf of England, who contended "I think it is time for meth go to bed likewise;" and then, while wishing which opened into the supper-room. The Duke of Wellington shut the door, and said: "Napoleon has humbugged me, by G-d; he has gained "I have ordered the army to concenf they could only pull together, giv- of Wellington suggested many aftern-up a constant correspondence with utes after it occurred, by the Pake of Bichmond, who was to have had Italy, and Murat, ever change charge of the reserve, if formed and treasury, while an equal sum shortly THE FRENCH AND ENGLISH The Paris and London papers of the Sthand 9th inst., comment at length following copious extracts will show the position taken by each:

cited feeling. The entire chamber in the galleries waved their handker-chiefs, and men shouted hurrah. The For the first time since the 21st of social order reposes to be at peace with Europe." There was no mistaking spoken the only language worthy of a